CASE NUMBER: 1:11-CR-109

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 16913(a), the Defendant shall register, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, where he is an employee, and where he is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the Defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction where convicted, if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of residence. If the state of residence is not accepting sex offender registrations pursuant to SORNA and unable to accept the Defendant's registration, he must maintain contact with state registration authorities and his probation officer to determine when such registration can be accepted. The duty to register may continue after the expiration or termination of the Defendant's federal supervised release and any existing duty to register under state law is not suspended and will remain in effect until the state implements SORNA of 2006. If the Defendant's supervision transfers to another federal district, the Defendant's duty to register as required by SORNA shall be governed by that district's policy and the laws of that state.
2. The Defendant is prohibited from gaining access in any manner to any online computer service or to the internet in any access form, including but not limited to, the world wide web, online bulletin board, internet relay chat, or online file archive, unless such access is required expressly for a specific class assignment in an accredited educational institution or to carry out a job duty for legal, outside employment as approved in advance by the probation officer. This condition excludes access for self-employment.
3. The Defendant is prohibited from obtaining an account or using any other person or entity's account, with any computer online service or internet service provider which has the capacity to access the internet in any manner, unless such access is required expressly for a specific class assignment in an accredited educational institution or to carry out a job duty for legal, outside employment as approved in advance by the probation officer.
4. The Defendant is prohibited from entering chat rooms, sending or receiving instant messages, or sending or receiving email with attached electronic files through any electronic medium, unless required expressly for a specific class assignment in an accredited educational institution or to carry out a job duty for legal, outside employment as approved in advance by the probation officer.
5. The Defendant is generally prohibited from using a computer during the term of supervised release except as needed to conduct legal research, outside employment, as a specified class assignment in an accredited educational institution, or to send or receive typed email messages without attached electronic files or images embedded in the body of the message, as approved in advance by the probation officer.
6. The Defendant is prohibited from viewing, downloading, possessing, or in any other form, accessing any and all pornographic materials whether depicting adults or minors, or both, as well as any photographs depicting the same, with the exception of photographs of the Defendant's minor family members, all of whom must be fully clothed.
7. The Defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed. The Defendant shall also be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer. The Defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation office. The Defendant shall sign all necessary forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, probation officers, polygraph examiners and others, as necessary, may communicate openly about the Defendant and his relapse prevention plan.
8. The Defendant's residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the probation officer in accordance with state and local law.
9. The Defendant shall have no contact with any minor children. Contact with minor children is forbidden even with supervision unless approved in advance by the Court. The term "contact" extends to all forms of communication, including mail, telephone, and all forms of electronic communication. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, waiters, etc., with whom the Defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services. The Defendant is prohibited from loitering where minors congregate, including, but not limited to, playgrounds, swimming pools, arcades, amusement parks, recreation parks, sporting events, and shopping malls.

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

10. The Defendant shall not rent or use a post office box or storage facility without prior approval of the probation officer, and if approved, any change must be communicated to the probation officer 72 hours prior to the change.

11. If computer activity is approved by the probation officer, the Defendant is required to install software to monitor computer activities on any computer he is authorized to use at his own expense. The software may record any and all activity on the Defendant's computer, including the capturing of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence and chat conversation. The software will be checked on a random basis. The Defendant has no expectation of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer if monitoring software is installed. The Defendant shall understand and agree that information gathered by monitoring software may be used against him in subsequent court actions regarding the Defendant's use of the computer and the terms of supervision. The Defendant must warn others of the existence of the software program. The Defendant is prohibited from removing, or attempting to remove, tampering or attempting to tamper, altering or attempting to alter, circumventing or attempting to circumvent, in any way the monitoring software program. The Defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.

12. The Defendant shall pay any unpaid balance of the special assessment and provide all financial information to the probation officer upon request.
